FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

Caring, Inclusive, Resourceful, Dependable, and Collaborative. I could not think of five more perfect words that describe what I have witnessed at CCNW in the past 6 years as a Board Member, Treasurer for 3 years and President for the last 2 years. In fact, in a team effort with the Board, staff and volunteers, these 5 core values along with guiding principles were officially adopted and will be guiding the Community Center for years to come.

While we went through some very challenging times during the pandemic years we emerged even stronger. We learned how to adapt to ever changing challenges and we did so guided by those five core values every day. We cared for each and every one of our neighbors who depended on us and worked to ensure no one was left behind; using every means possible and securing the necessary resources to make sure our doors were always open. I could not be more proud.

During my tenure the Center has developed in every way. We opened our Community Shop which continues to prosper and the Community Studio was born to allow our skill building classes to thrive. Our volunteer and donor base has grown tremendously and we continue to work toward improving and expanding our facility to meet the changing needs of our community.

As I step down, and leave the Board in the capable hands of Ryan Becker, I want to thank the Board, staff and Community Partners for the opportunity to serve with such an incredible group of people. These past six years have taught me many things but most of all it solidified my faith in what community actually means. The Community Center of Northern Westchester was founded by the community, is supported by the community and is a pillar of our community and always will be. It truly is a place where neighbors are helping neighbors and I know that will never change.

Thank you to all who support CCNW. Your caring and generosity means the world and does so much for so many!

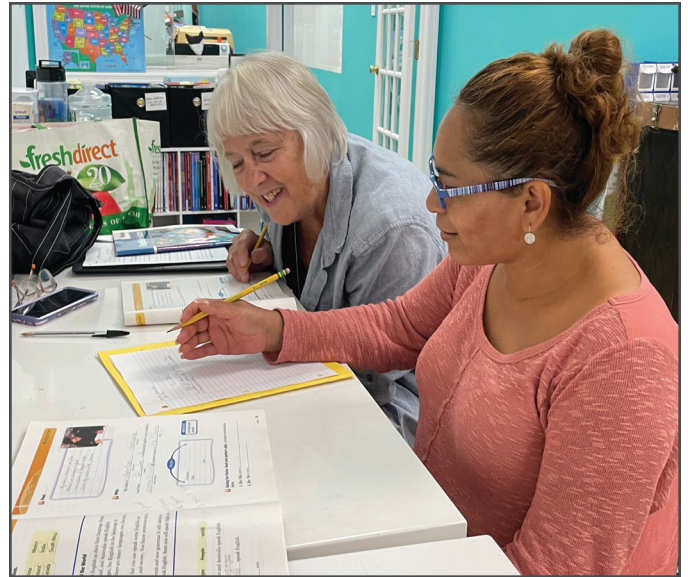

Warmest wishes

Jill Abolt
Board President

THE BASIC NEEDS

FOOD PANTRY

1 in 5 Westchester County residents is food-insecure. In 2022, Our "Food Market" helped fill the gap for almost 3,000 Northern Westchester families. In our choice style food pantry clients can choose the items they want, including meat, eggs and fresh produce.

We are grateful for the generous donations and food drives from the community which help us stock our shelves, but we must still purchase nearly 2/3 of the food we distribute.

It costs the Center over $275,000 annually to keep the Pantry shelves filled with nutritious food to meet the growing need.

CLOTHING BOUTIQUE

In 2022, our generous local community donated 247,394 pounds of gently used clothing, shoes and linens to our free-of-charge "Clothing Boutique".

Our families can select from a wide variety of clothing, including warm winter wear, outfits appropriate for interviews and work, clothing for children in school and athletic attire so kids can participate in sports.

GRATITUDE

As a young mother I found myself in a single parent situation. I was forced to find resources and services that would assist me emotionally, mentally and in some cases financially to help keep my young family afloat. It was during these times that I was introduced to CCNW.

As I moved along and was able to regain my footing I was able to utilize the Pantry less and less, and it's funny because you're going along and you don't even realize that you're not coming every month anymore and then once again I'm blindsided and the trajectory of my life takes an unsuspecting turn and I'm looking for ways to once again make ends meet.

I remember pulling up in the parking lot and just sitting in my car, almost ashamed...having a conversation with myself, telling "me" it's ok, just go in! So I take a gulp of air and swallow my pride and I go in and then it comes back to me. I had forgotten what a caring, accepting, judge-less environment the team had created at the Community Center.

Everyone that works or volunteers understands that for a lot of folks walking through those doors does not come easy. For some it's a feeling of failure and shame.

But when they greet you, upstairs or down their smiles pull you in...their voices comfort you and all of a sudden you're not looking down but your head is up and you have found the courage to look the person standing in front of you in the eyes.

Now some may say this is all pretty dramatic over a bag of food, but it's not just a bag of food...It is a silent scream of encouragement. It's that metaphorical pat on the back that says "it's OK. We're here for you!" ...An unsolicited act of caring that can only come from someone who cares...It's continued hope for better days.

I'm not sure if the Community Center has a battle cry but if it doesn't it should, and it should definitely be... It's not a hand out, it's a hand up!

Thank You, Angela

THE IMPACT

"To all of the nameless, faceless donors, shelf stackers, clothes folders, food truck drivers, farmers and grocery packers please know that your contributions are being considered with care, your efforts are being expelled with empathy and that your giving is being received with the highest level of gratitude."

THE IMPACT

"I don't have enough money to buy presents. The new pajamas give me something to wrap and put under the tree so my children have something to open."

LOVING OUR CHILDREN

1 in 10 children in Westchester lives in poverty. Our relationships with families has taught us that the best way to help those in financial crisis is to first meet the needs of their children, because as families struggle to make ends meet, children bear the brunt. Families report reduced stress and greater peace of mind when their children have their needs met.

In 2022 we:

- Provided for over 400 babies by offering diapers, wipes, formula, and baby food to their families.
- Supported 1,800 local children with brand-new school supplies.
- 100 high school seniors attended their Senior Proms in style with beautiful donated formal wear.
- Awarded 21 students with scholarships to support their continued education to achieve their academic goals.
- Kept 1,500 children warm during the winter with new pajamas, hats and gloves.

CARE, LOVE & HOPE

Provided clothing to 100 seniors each month

552

HOME DELIVERIES of groceries were made to homebound seniors

over 600

seniors had access to FREE flu shots & health screenings bags of fresh PRODUCE delivered monthly by Door Dash to those in need!

355

CARING FOR OUR SENIORS

8% of seniors in Westchester live in poverty. These neighbors are often struggling to stay in their homes and must make hard choices each month between paying bills, buying medicine, paying rent or putting food on their table. Our choice pantry and clothing program help to meaningfully reduce stress for seniors by supporting their basic needs, and for our homebound seniors we deliver monthly groceries.

In 2022 we:

- Supported over 600 seniors living on limited budgets, with food, clothing and essential needs.
- Made 552 home deliveries to provide groceries and emotional support to our local homebound seniors.
- Aided 79 seniors who reached out to us for help for the first time.
- Provided access to free health screenings, flu shots, eyeglasses, nutrition counseling and more.

THE IMPACT

"I would like to thank you all for being there for me now and in the past, helping me with food and clothes, a good word, conversation and compassion."

All of you are truly angels, caring individuals sent by God to help us get nutritious food and a sense of belonging."

COMMUNITY

CCNW is able to provide so much to so many due to the incredible and ongoing support of our donors, volunteers and Community Partners!

VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers make everything we do possible: we could not function without the time, energy and commitment they generously provide. Almost 700 volunteers of all ages, from teenagers eager to perform community service, to parents of school-aged children and retirees who now have extra time, come to the Center to give back to their community.

Many of our volunteers work to support the daily operations of the Center: receiving and sorting donations or directly assisting our families in need in our food pantry and clothing boutique.

Volunteers can also participate in the Center’s work in many other ways including: teaching classes, maintaining the building and grounds, recovering food from local grocery stores, holding food drives, helping at our Community Shop and Studio or assisting in our fundraising efforts. We are so grateful!

DONORS

We could not do what we do without ALL your forms of support.

Thank you for bringing the generous food and clothing donations to our back door and supporting our seasonal drives.

We truly appreciate your extraordinary help last year in donating 171,458 lbs. of food, helping to recover over 41,000 lbs. of food from local businesses, and providing 247,394 lbs. of clothing.

Your financial contributions and gifts in kind have once again kept our doors open and our programs running for all who need our help. THANK YOU!

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

Community Partners provide financial support and a representative as a liaison between CCNW and their organization. They increase awareness of our services for those in need and encourage support of our drives and volunteer program in their own communities. We are so grateful for all they do!
